Cupid Shuffle Anniversary/Marriage Count Down Dance: The Dj invites all married couples and the newlyweds to the dance floor. The newlyweds will remain on the floor. Every 30 to 45 sec. the Dj will call out a number and couples who are married that long or less will leave the dance floor. This will go on until the last couple is left standing. The Dj will then ask the couple to give some advice about a long lasting marriage to the newlyweds.

Multiplication Dance: The Dj will ask every one who wants to participate to gather on the floor in a large circle. The Dj will pick six volunteers of the opposite sex for star dancing in the middle. Every time the Dj calls "break" each volunteer must go pick a person of the opposite sex to come and dance. This continues until every one is dancing. (This takes about 2 or 3 songs)

Line Dance: form two lines guys on one side ladies on the other. The couple on the far end will start (the Dj will designate the front of the two lines). The couple may dance any way they would like while moving down the center of the two lines. Then the next two start moving down the line when the first couples are near the center of the line, and so on. (Continues until the first couple comes' up to to the start again)(this is not the country version)

Mother & Son, Father & Daughter Dances: self explanatory, Mother, Son Father, Daughter.

POPULAR DANCES & CONTESTS: THROW YO HANDS UP ENTERTAINMENT

YMCA: The Dj will pick 6 volunteers to dress like the Village People and they are to perform for the other guests. (the costumes consists of just hats) (Construction worker, Navy, Indian, Biker, policeman, cowboy, fireman)

Best Dancers Contest: The Dj will pick three judges. Every one is asked to the floor to begin dancing. The three judges will pick twelve people from the crowd. When the twelve are selected they will be asked to stand in front until all twelve are selected. Once all twelve are selected they dance individually until there is only one standing. The Dj will ask the audience to give the best dancer a round of applause.

Freeze Contest: The Dj will ask everyone to the dance floor. The Dj will explain when the music stops everyone freezes, the ones still dancing will be "out" and help the Dj catch the people still dancing. The Dj will pick someone to judge at the start of the contest. After the contest is over the top three will be applauded.

Fast Group: The Dj will call participants to the floor. The point of this game is to get into groups of whatever number the Dj calls. The ones left out of a group are out.

Musical Chairs: This game is also self explanatory; the Dj will ask every one who wants to participate to bring their chairs. The guest will then form a circle with the chairs. The Dj then will inform the crowd when the music stops the one without a chair is "out". The last one sitting is the winner.
